He was described as sex male, race South, eyes chestnut, age 8, born at Naples, Italy, citizen of Italy, and was signed into the United States by his uncle RAFIELE FIERI, 132 Thompson Street, New York City. [redacted] advised on May 24, 1962 that a floating blackjack and poker game of substantial portion was operating at [redacted] New York City. The informant said [redacted] was also operating this game on behalf of the subject.

On August 13, 1962, [redacted] ascertained that [redacted] Rambart Alley Night Club, [redacted] in a club formerly known as the Clan located on East 57th Street, New York City. They proposed to change the name of this club to the Clique.

According to the informant, [redacted] stated that two Italian hoodlums, one of whom he identified as [redacted] contacted him and attempted to shake him down for 10% interest. [redacted] said he would put a cigarette machine and juke box in this club. [redacted] balked at this arrangement and asked [redacted] whom he represented and [redacted] replied that he was one of FUNZI's men from Brooklyn. The informant felt that FUNZI was identical with FRANK TIERI.

E. IMMIGRATION PROCEEDINGS

[redacted] INS, 20 West Broadway, New York City, was in contact with SA [redacted] on August 31, 1961, at which time he advised that he contemplated applying for an order to show cause why the subject should not be deported. This action on his part would commence the actual mechanics of deportation.

[redacted] advised that he had found a witness who was in Canada with the subject in the early 1940's, and can so testify. [redacted] advised that the subject can apply for a suspension of deportation and show good moral character on his part for the past ten years. [redacted] advised that [redacted] who was determined as a result of Federal Bureau of Investigation investigation in another case, would militate against TIERI proving good character.

On September 20, 1961, [ ] advised that the order to show good cause that TIERI should not be deported was mailed out to him on approximately the 15th of September and this order summoned him to appear at INS Headquarters on September 26, 1961.

[ ] advised that this order puts the machinery of deportation in action, but he pointed out that there are many legal actions which the subject may take in order to put off his deportation.

On October 20, 1961, [ ] advised that [ ] who is representing FUNZI has requested two adjournments on above case.

On November 28, 1962, [ ] advised that as of January 8, 1962, this matter was assigned by the INS for investigation concerning the subject's character, the results of which will be presented at a subsequent departmental hearing. [ ] stated that at an INS hearing on March 19, 1959, TIERI admitted leaving the United States about 15 years or 20 years ago subsequent to a conviction involving moral turpitude at Albany, New York, in 1962. This, therefore, made TIERI amenable to deportation in Section 241 (a)(1).

[ ] reiterated that their investigation located witnesses who could testify to the subject's presence in Canada.

TIERI originally filed an application file to petition for naturalization in Brooklyn on January 20, 1959.

Upon completion of this character investigation, an immigration hearing will be held to determine TIERI's deportation status.

For information of Legat, Rome, a review of subject's INS file shows the subject applied to the INS Regional Counsel's Office in April, 1970, for a "waiver" and a permit to re-enter the US. Both the "waiver" and the re-entry permit were approved in May, 1970, without the knowledge of INS investigators or supervisors.

who located the file, states both documents are not necessary. The subject apparently was making doubly sure he could re-enter the US.

The documents contain the subject's background and personal history. The "waiver" lists the subject's address abroad as: "C/O American Express, Naples, Italy". No other information concerning the subject's trip or itinerary outside the US is listed.  stated if he had been consulted, he would not have accepted such sketchy information from the subject and would have demanded specific addresses and travel plans.

ReBuairtel, dated 1/13/72.

Enclosed for the Bureau are six copies of an LHM for transmittal to Legat, Rome, per Bureau instructions.

For the information of the Bureau, AUSA MARY MC GUIRE, EDNY, advised on 1/17/72, that she recently argued the Government's case in the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in December, 1971, in the case involving the appeal filed by TIERI seeking reversal of the decision rendered in US District Court, EDNY, denying TIERI his petition for citizenship. The Second Circuit reserved decision, but AUSA MC GUIRE feels it will affirm the lower court's ruling. AUSA MC GUIRE does not expect a decision for at least two months. She stated as far as she knows there are still no grounds for deportation and if the Second Circuit affirms, the subject will continue in his alien status.

                     Citizens Branch, INS, Brooklyn, NY, who maintains the TIERI file was advised of the information indicating                      was unable to verify subject's date of birth.

Legat, Rome should note that the date 10/24/11, furnished by TIERI as his date of birth on the fingerprint card submitted on 6/9/70, by INS, Washington, D.C., probably pertains to the date he entered the US from Italy.

Legat should consider requesting [redacted] to check records of Vital Statistics under the name FIERI.

Frank Tieri

The files of the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) reflect that when Frank Tieri was interviewed by the FBI on September 10, 1958, he claimed to have been born February 22, 1904, at Naples, Italy, and that he entered the United States with his mother, father and two sisters in 1911.

The files of Immigration and Naturalization Service reflected that Tieri entered the United States at New York City on October 22, 1911, aboard the "SS Rochambeau" as Francesco Fieri. He was accompanied by his mother, Carmela Tofano, age 37, sister Assunta Fieri, age 16, and Antonetta Fieri, age 2. He was reportedly signed into the United States by his uncle, Raffele Fieri, of New York City. His father was identified as Augustini Tieri.

It should be noted that the spelling Fieri is possibly a mistake as the rest of the file carries his name as Tieri. All current information contained in Immigration and Naturalization files indicate Tieri's date of birth as February 22, 1904, and there is no reference to the last name Fieri.
